TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR NO. 13.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, MARCH 13 1904.

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR.

THE MEETING OF COUNCIL.

Ordinance Presented for Electric Lights. Other Notes.

Monday evening was the regular meeting of council. All members were present and answered to roll call. The most important business up for consideration was the reading of two ordinances for the first time for electric light. Mr. E. G. Lowry has had two ordinances prepared, one for the half night or Philadelphia Moon Light Schedule and the other for all night. For the former Mr. Lowry agrees to furnish 50 fifty-five candle power incandescent lights at $75 per month. The latter is for the same number of lights at $100 per month. There was no vote taken, owing to the first reading.

A resolution was passed instructing the clerk to see that the gasoline lamp that has been in use in front of the opera house be returned to the company.

The clerk stated that his books with the treasurer's did not balance with the amount of money on hand. The difference was caused by the recent division of the money from the auditor under the new code. Messrs. Andrew and Bull were appointed to make an examination and locate the trouble.

The reports from the different committees were read and accepted. The Mayor's report shows $10 collected the past month. The only discussion was over the bill for expenses where member Caldwell ordered a new box at the Field's crossing, owing to water backing up on the side walk. Mr. Andrew voted no on the question, that the corporation had no right to put in the box. Street Commissioner Ford explained that the box was made out of two old ones, except a small piece of lumber. The treasurer's report shows about $1855 on hand.

The report on the Orr road by Bull was accepted. The county commissioners have given the petition its first reading. It must be read three times. The law requires that the clerk, heads of all departments and members of the different committees make a report by March 1st for what will be needed next year. The levy must be reported Monday evening a recess was taken until Saturday night at which time they will be ready.

T. D. BENDURE,

SPRINGFIELD'S DAYLIGHT STORE.

D. A. McMillan.

Mr. D. A. McMillan of Springfield died at his home on East Southern avenue Tuesday evening after an illness of some four weeks from pneumonia. Mr. McMillan was a son of the late Daniel McMillan and was born and raised on a farm east of town on the Columbus pike. He was in his 57th year and was the oldest of seven children.

In September 7, 1886 he was married to Miss Rosa White and to them were born two daughters and one son, all of whom remain to mourn his loss.

For a number of years the deceased was engaged in the grocery business in Cedarville but later moved to Springfield where he continued the same trade for some time.

The funeral services took place at his late home Thursday morning, being conducted by Rev. Hume of Springfield. Burial took place at Masses Creek cemetery on the family lot.

Beside the immediate family Mr. McMillan is survived by two sisters Mrs. J. C. Barber and Mrs. R. S. Townsley, and a brother, Wm. McMillan of Monmouth, Ill.

TEST THE SEED CORN.

Ohio Experiment Station Gives
Some Advice on the Subject.

Seed corn should never be planted until it has been tested to determine what per cent will germinate. While this is always advisable perhaps it is more necessary this year than common for the reason that corn was slow in drying out last fall and extremely cold weather unusually early.

Examination of many samples of corn in different parts of the state, and of some lots of seed corn purchased in the west, leads the Ohio Experiment Station to believe that there will be considerable more trouble than usual this year in getting a satisfactory stand. The safe thing to do is to test the seed early and have plenty of time to look elsewhere for seed of greater vitality if occasion demands.

The station has recently tested eight lots of corn including five varieties. Three of these tests were made with the same variety of corn, the selected seed of which had been carried through the winter in different ways, viz.: In a large crib of corn six feet wide, overhead in crib spread out in a thin layer on the floor; in a room where the temperature was from 60 to 71 degrees.

Of the crib corn (selected ears) only 60 kernels out of a hundred germinated; of similar corn kept overhead in crib 81 kernels germinated; of that subjected to artificial 95 out of the hundred germinated. This for corn which seemed quite mature at husking time.

Of the other corn tested, choice ears sent to the station in the pink condition (supposedly so until the kernels were examined) showed as low as 80 per cent germinated.

It is quite probable that the low temperature of the early winter, owing while kernels and cob yet contained much moisture, is responsible for this state of affairs.

A convenient way to test corn is between sheets of moist paper or cloth, placed in a box of suitable size. Several lots may be tested at once and examined much more easily and quickly.

Keep the paper moist and where the temperature does not fall below 55 degrees. It should all germinate in from 4 to 8 days, depending upon the sort of corn weather furnished.

Handled in this way it is possible to examine it daily and note the progress of germination.

There are different degrees of vitality in corn that will germinate. Many of the weak, spindling stalks which produce a small nubbin, or nothing at all, spring from seed of barely enough vitality to get the plant above the ground. Seed that will grow fairly well when conditions are favorable at seeding time will rot in cold, damp weather to prevail.

If possible use only such seed as has large, bright looking germs. Wrinkled and dull-colored germs have likely been injured by freezing. Plumpness at the tip is an evidence of vitality.

Thin, skinned kernels having sharp pointed tips should be rejected, as well as those having an excess of soft, white starch at either crown or tip.

The station hopes that its suggestions given last fall have been followed by the corn growers of the state and that all have supplied themselves with the best seed corn obtainable and have taken good care of it. Choice seed corn is worth much more than anyone thinks of asking for it. Poor seed should be classed with the luxuries (?) which no corn farmer can afford. Ohio Experiment Station.

G. G. Williams, Agriculturist.
The station has no seed corn for sale.

CHANGE THE LAW.

It is to be hoped that a bill will be introduced in the legislature and passed that will protect educational institutions as in the case of the endowment fund of the Xenia Theological Seminary. Judge Scroggy does no more than his duty in handing down the decision that he did, he had to be governed by the law. Had he given any other decision he would have been reversed in the higher courts, as has been the case in a number of instances. The present law should be changed.

WILL PROBATED.

By the will of the late Nixon Brown filed Wednesday for probate, he bequeaths substantially all of his property to his daughters, Mrs. Lizzie Wolford and Mrs. Hattie P. Madden, the latter of Xenia. He had already transferred to his wife property amounting to $6,326.44, and makes no bequests to her. Having transferred to his daughter, Mrs. Wolford 249 acres of land some time ago, and desiring to provide for his daughters equally he bequeaths to Mrs. Madden 102 acres of land in Xenia township and 21 acres in Silvercreek township. He also bequeaths to Mrs. Madden $2,590 with six per cent interest from the date of the will, October 21, 1903. With the exception of $200 bequeathed to Green Plain cemetery all the remainder of the estate is to be divided equally between his two daughters. W. P. Madden is named as executor of the will.

SEEKS DIVORCE.

Myrtle St. John has brought suit in the Court of Common Pleas at Dayton asking that she be granted a divorce from her husband, Elmer St. John. The parties to the suit were former residents of Cedarville and later resided in this city until their separation some week ago, since which time Mrs. St. John has been living in Dayton. The husband is employed as a blacksmith in this city. She charges him with unfaithfulness and with other wrong doings. They have one child. Sheriff Tarbox received the papers in the suit a day or two ago, and served them upon the husband on Thursday.—Xenia Gazette.

DOUBLE TRACKING.

The Pennsylvania railroad is at last at work on the double track that has been talked of for several months. The first work is being done between Xenia and Wilberforce. The principle class of labor is the Italian Dago, some fifty of them being brought out from Cincinnati. Temporary quarters are provided both for the laborer and his family. The railroad company expects to have everything in first class shape for the World's Fair at St. Louis. It is stated that few freights will go over this road but that there will be a passenger train every thirty minutes.

FOR SALE.

The dwelling known as the Stewart property at the corner of Main and Chillicothe streets will be offered for sale, Saturday, March, 19th at 2 o'clock p. m., on the premises. The dwelling will be offered first, the wood house second and the stone foundation third. These will be offered separately and then as a whole and sold in the manner they bring the most money. Terms made known on day of sale. By order of the Trustees of the U. P. Church, 13d.

MANAGER WANTED.

Trust worthy lady or gentleman to manage business in this county and adjoining territory for well and favorably known house of solid financial standing $20.00 straight cash salary and expense paid each Monday by check direct from headquarters. Expense money advanced. Position permanent. Address Manager, 810 Como Block, Chicago, Illinois.

Doctors use Them

Yorktown, Ark., March 14th—Dr. Leland Williamson, a physician who has practiced for over twenty years, says:—"I invariably prescribe Dodd's Kidney Pills for all diseases and disorders of the Kidneys, and they have never disappointed me yet. I could tell of many cases in which they have made perfect and permanent cure when all other treatments seemed to be of no avail. Here is one very striking case:—

"Mrs. C. B. Lawrence, age 29, family history of tuberculosis and Bright's Disease of Kidneys, extreme pain in right kidney and left and high colored urine. Partial paralysis possibly from the accumulation of uric acid in the blood, very restless, appetite deficient and fever at nights, great constipation. Prescribed necessary remedies for constipation, and directed Dodd's Kidney Pills which was continued for some time, and about twelve months after commenced taking the pills, patient was delivered of a fine healthy boy baby her first child."

GREENE COUNTY POLITICAL NEWS.

Entries all in for the Primary.
Call Issued for Congressional Primary.

The entries for the county primary closed at noon last Saturday and a very quiet election is looked for. The entries closed with out opposition for a single county office something not known in years. The only contest will be for central committee in one or two precincts. There being no spring election it is thought that the vote will be very light. The following is the list for county offices: Auditor, Wm. Dodds; Recorder, M. A. Broadstone; Commissioner, John W. Smith; Sheriff, Frank Tarbox; County Surveyor, G. A. McKay; Infirmary Director, W. B. Stevenson; M. A. Broadstone, congressional committeeman from this county has issued a call for a congressional primary to be held at the same time and place of the regular primary April 4. The call states that the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be the choice, and is authorized to select, name and appoint the delegates and alternates to the convention to be held in Wilmington, April 12.

There is every indication that Judge T. E. Scroggy will be the only candidate for congress from this county, this being so and he being allowed to select, name and appoint his own delegates under the call, he will go before the convention with a solid delegation. Greene county would like to have the place once in so many score of years and she certainly has an able candidate in Judge Scroggy. In Warren county Judge Scroggy should be quite a factor as this was his birth place and where he was raised. In Brown and Clermont counties he will be more than recognized. This district has heretofore always been a two term district and as the present congressman, C. Q. Hildebrand, has served two terms, it is up to the convention to decide as to a change. The convention at Wilmington will of course give Mr. Hildebrand some strength, but the most conservative say that the third term argument will be against him. At present the fight between Hildebrand and Scroggy the other candidates not being regarded as important opposition.

Some of the coming attractions at the Victoria Theater at Dayton are: "The Redger Brothers in London," March 24; "The Earl of Paynter," Frederick Warde and Louis James Company; Miss Viola Allen in "Twelfth Night"; Francis Wilson in "Ermine"; Miss Annie Russell in "The Younger Mrs. Parling"; Miss Amelia Bingham in "Olympic"; Miss Maud Adams in "The Pretty Sister of Jose."

The Central Union Telephone Co. and the Citizens Telephone Co. of Xenia are having a contest in the courts in regard to the construction of a line of poles and wires on the Columbus pike which the Central Union Telephone Co. claims will interfere with their present lines of communication. Judge Scroggy being out of the city a temporary restraining order was granted by Probate Judge Shoup.

J. S. Brown stock sale March 31. Clayton McMillan, stock sale, March 31.

"And now, my dearest Amelia, won't you name the day?" "Yes, Percy. We'll be married when you've paid all the installments on my engagement ring."

The expression "make good," product of the American habit of creating short and telling idioms, is beginning to comprise the whole story of success in any endeavor, says the St. Louis Republic. Whether it be an appeal to public support, whether it be in the smaller relation of services rendered to an employer, the American judgment is becoming unusually keen in deciding whether, on the whole, a man "makes good." It is not precisely a question of this or that shortcoming. It is chiefly a question of a spontaneous judgment. There are no ifs or buts connected with the matter. The man "makes good" or he doesn't "make good," and that's an end to discussion. Nobody can see whether he does or not. Excuses don't go.

In the New York Law school at a recent lecture on the making of wills the case of a woman in one of Rider Haggard's books was cited. This woman had a man's will inscribed in ink on her back. And the will was held regular and legal because it had been made in writing.

After giving this practical illustration the professor called on John Smith, saying: "Is a will so inscribed regular and legal in your opinion?" "No," answered Smith. "Why not?" asked the professor. "Because it's a skin game," replied Smith.

The professor felt angry enough to order Smith out of the room, but the class laughed so much that he decided to overlook the student's flippancy.
